Soldiers Deserting in Large Numbers Leave Open Road for Enemy

Only At One Point, In Southern Carpathians, Are Russians Putting Up A Fight—Precipitate Retreat In Galicia—Stanislaw, Tarnopol, And Other Towns Taken By Teutons—French Again Repulse Crown Prince's Army On Aisne Front—Huns Make Small Gain From British.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
LONDON, July 25.—Even the actual entry of women soldiers into battle on the eastern front has been insufficient to imbue the ranks of the recalcitrant Russians with patriotism. They are still deserting in large numbers in Galicia, leaving a virtually free road open for fresh advances by the Germans and Austro-Hungarians. From the Baltic to the Black Sea only at one point along the long line—in the southern Carpathians—have the Russians risen to the occasion and shown some of their old fighting spirit. Here, fighting shoulder to shoulder with their Rumanian allies, they have attacked and captured several villages from the Germans and broken the heavily fortified Teuton line on a wide front.

Precipitate Retreat.
In Galicia the precipitate retreat of the Russians continues almost everywhere from the Carpathian foothills to the region around Tarnopol, the government apparently not yet having had time to put in force its strong repressive measures which M. Kerensky, the head of the government, has promised to apply in order to stay the debacle. Nadvorna, in the fringe of the foothills, Stanislaw and Tarnopol, and numerous smaller towns have been taken by the Teutons who are now approaching the important railroad junction of Buczacz, which lies thirty miles east of Halicz. The German emperor was an observer of the battle on the Sereth front and saw his men put down the only effort of moment that was made to hold them back—an attack by the Russians between Tarnopol and Trembowla.

Women's Notable Part.
Since the penetration of the German lines near Krevo, in which the women took a notable part, despite which large numbers of the Russians ignominiously retreated to their old positions without even the vestige of harassment by the enemy, the Russians have not stirred from their trenches to face the foe. The hostilities on the Aisne front, where for weeks the Germans have wasted men by scores of ineffectual attempts to break through General Petain's front, have ceased, and only artillery duels are now in progress. Early Wednesday morning witnessed one of the last attempts of the crown prince to gain his objective. This was on the Calonne Plateau, where an attack was completely repulsed.

Win on British.
The Germans have been successful in winning two hundred yards of trenches from the British east of Monchy-le-Preux, which they had bombarded for several days past. In the capture of the position the enemy again resorted to the use of liquid fire. Along the front in Northern Belgium the heavy artillery duel continues, but as yet there has been no sign of either the British or the Germans starting an infantry attack. British airmen have bombed and caused severe damage to the German submarine base at Zeebrugge and also to the town of Brugge.

Shoot Deserters.
PETROGRAD, July 25, via London.—Russian commissioners who restored discipline in the Seventh and Eighth armies, making possible the recent Russian offensive in Galicia, after witnessing the retreat of the Russians in the face of Austro-German attack, have sent their reports to Premier Kerensky. They advise that "capital punishment should be meted out to those who refuse to risk their lives for their fatherland and freedom." One of the first results of the retirement of the troops has been a general agitation for the restoration of the death penalty for desertion. In the army and for treasonable conduct on the part of the agitators. General Korniloff, commander on the southwest front, has issued orders that deserters and troops refusing to obey orders. Premier Kerensky has sanctioned the effort to restore discipline. Alexander Maximilien, whose agitation the demoralization of the troops is directly attributed, have been arrested.

Liquid Fire.
LONDON, July 25.—The British official report from headquarters in France tonight reads: "Following a heavy bombardment of our trenches east of Monchy-le-Preux, the enemy early this morning again attacked our positions on Infantry Hill, and with the assistance of flamethrowers, succeeded in driving in a few of our advanced posts on a front of 200 yards. A German raiding party was driven off by our rifle fire this afternoon north of Bullecourt. "Our troops raided the enemy's trenches north of Ypres this morning at a number of points and captured several prisoners. "Yesterday a thick haze interfered greatly with observation in the air. Bombing raids were carried out by our airplanes during the day as well as the previous night. Fighting took place in the evening. Four German machines were driven down out of control. Three of our machines are missing. "PARIS, July 25.—The official communication issued by the war office tonight reads: "The activity of the two armies was very spirited, particularly on the Casemate and Calonne Plateau, in Champagne, in the region of Moronville, and on the left bank of the Meuse. Everywhere our batteries very vigorously took to task the enemy artillery. There was no infantry action. "Shells to the number of 567 were fired into Reims. "Belgian communication: 'The enemy artillery was active during the night against our communications in the region of Western and near Saint Jacques-Beaumont. There was grenade fighting between Dixmude and artillery fighting in the region of Ranscapelle and Rippegaale. "Amry of the East, July 24.—There was moderate artillery activity in the region of the Vardar. Enemy patrols were dispersed by the Serbian staff, and Staravina. Lively artillery actions occurred northwest of Monastir during the night of July 23-24. Calm was re-established during the day."

Loss Estimated At $100,000—Grand Stand Was Packed When Outbreak Was Discovers—In A Few Minutes It Was A Roaring Furnace—Great Excitement But No Panic And No One Injured.
REGINA, Sask., July 25.—With the grandstand at the exhibition grounds packed to the limit, smoke was seen coming out of the roof of the building. A fire was raised, and in fifteen minutes the structure was burned to the ground. While a panic seemed imminent at the outbreak, cool heads succeeded in controlling the situation, and although there was naturally great excitement as the smoke rolled up thicker and thicker, the fire was kept under control and quickly and no one was even injured. Before the last of the crowd had got out flames were shooting through the floor in a dozen places. In a minute or two the huge frame structure was a roaring furnace and the intense heat drove the crowds back over a race track and clear across the enclosure. Dry as tinder the stand burned rapidly and adjacent buildings were also soon in a blaze. The industrial building in which were many expensive exhibits was soon in flames and is a total loss, while smaller booths and concessions were also destroyed before the firemen had the big blaze under control. In their work they were well assisted by the soldiers in camp on the grounds. While the fire was still in progress an emergency meeting of the directors was held and it was decided to go ahead with the exhibition as usual tomorrow. The attendance this afternoon was the largest in the history of the association, close to 20,000 people being on the grounds when the fire broke. Loss About $100,000. It was difficult tonight to estimate the total loss, but it will be somewhere in the neighborhood of $100,000. Exhibitors in the industrial buildings were heavy losers, and many holders of concessions were hard hit. The fire started in a vacant space between the floor of the grand stand and the ceiling of the room beneath. It is believed a lighted match, cigar stub or cigarette was responsible. The smoke was first noticed coming up through the floor three or four rows behind the directors' box in the front of the stand. Among the guests in the box was Grant Hall, vice president.

MILLIONS GASOLINE GONE.
PHILADELPHIA, July 25.—The fire at the Atlantic Refining company last night caused a loss estimated at $200,000. Nearly 400,000 gallons of gasoline were destroyed. One employee is missing.

OAK LEAVES FOR LEOPOLD.
COPENHAGEN, July 25.—The arrival of Emperor William at the Galician front yesterday morning is reported in a Berlin despatch. He awarded the Order Pour Le Merite with oak leaves and chain to Prince Leopold of Bavaria, General Hoffman, Prince Leopold's chief staff, and Major Franz, chief of staff of an army corps.

C.P.R. MEN WILL NOT WORK WITH ENEMY ALIENS

Freight Handlers At Calgary Threaten Strike If Company Insists.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
CALGARY, Alta., July 25.—Freight handlers in the local C.P.R. yards three times today threatened strikes as a protest against the introduction of enemy alien labor by the C.P.R. As a result each time the aliens were removed.

The officials declare that enemy labor is necessary to sustain traffic, but at a meeting tonight freight handlers announced their decision to decline to work with enemy aliens sent to work today admitted they were Austrians. The officials told the men it was only a matter of twenty-five of them for 15 days to clean up rush work, but the men refused to work. They insist that Italians and Russians can be found if sufficient wages are offered.

HUN GENERALS FEAR TROOPS SURRENDER

Deliberately Create Impression That The British Kill Prisoners.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
CANADIAN HEADQUARTERS IN FRANCE, July 25, via London.—The latest trick of the German official deceivers is a scurrily one, played at the expense of the German troops who have poured out their lives in defence of the Fatherland. In the Canadian raid of Monday morning it was noticed that occupants of the dugouts very generally refused to come up and surrender. Some who did mount the stairs made a rush to overpower our bombers and died fighting. Evidence has now been found that there is a very general conviction among the German troops that the British kill all prisoners. Were not for this the men would give themselves up much more readily. That this hideously false impression is deliberately fostered by German high command is a moral certainty.

Some time ago, in a cable dealing with the increasing tendency of south German troops to surrender, the Canadian overseas correspondent quoted from captured documents to show that opinions of commanding officers at the front had been asked as to whether a reduction in the number of the troops in the first and support line trenches would lessen surrender. This reduction is now in process of being made, and in the new positions all the enemy dugouts are well back from the front line. As a further means of preventing surrender the men are encouraged to resist capture by the spreading of the senseless lie that the British kill all prisoners.

A heavy haze, accompanying a heat wave, has, during the past two days, caused a reduction in the artillery operations, but the work of trench destruction continues without interruption. Yesterday, on the Canadian front, fourteen explosions were seen in the enemy's battery positions, and two fires were caused.

2 WOMEN KILLED IN STREET CAR AUTO CRASH

Three Others Seriously Injured In Accident At Fort William Last Night.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
FORT ARTHUR, Ont., July 25.—In a collision between a street car and automobile at the corner of Algonquin and Clavel streets tonight, Mrs. F. Findlay and Mrs. S. Nicklin are dead and N. B. Gerry, F. Findlay and Mrs. Arthur Chipman were seriously injured. All belong to Fort William.

The automobile party was on its way to the theatre, and, according to witnesses of the accident, both the automobile and the car were travelling at a good rate of speed, so that when they sighted each other on the corner, it was impossible for either to stop in time to avoid the accident. The touring car was completely wrecked.

Residents of the vicinity who witnessed the accident from their homes, rushed out and found all five who had been in the car lying unconscious, and calling other automobiles, had them immediately removed to the hospital. Mrs. Findlay died first and Mrs. Nicklin died later this evening for Winnipeg, where a son who has been in hospital for several weeks after returning from the front is in hospital in England from wounds received in active service.

Mr. Gerry, owner of the automobile, is well known in Fort William as a hardware merchant, and Mrs. Chipman is a daughter-in-law of the late Dr. Chipman. Mr. and Mrs. Findlay were also well known in the community. No one on the street car was seriously hurt.

HUNS RETREAT; FIGHTING IN EAST AFRICA

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
LONDON, July 25.—British troops in German East Africa have won new victories over the remaining German forces there and the main body of the enemy is now in retreat toward the south after having suffered heavy losses, says an official statement issued today. The text reads: "An engagement on July 19 at Naromwe resulted in the enemy being driven from all his positions. The main body is retreating southward. The enemy's losses were heavy. "A small German column is at large on the north shore of Lake Manyara. "We are in touch at Libuku with the enemy retreating toward Mahaga. (In the southeasterly section of the colony). SUB. SINKINGS FOR THE WEEK SHOW INCREASE

Twenty-One British Vessels Of Over 1,600 Tons Sent To The Bottom.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
LONDON, July 25.—Twenty-one British vessels of more than 1,600 tons each, were sunk last week by mines or submarines, according to the weekly admiralty report of shipping losses. One fishing vessel was also lost.

The announcement of the British admiralty given above shows an increase of seven vessels of more than 1,600 tons sent to the bottom as compared with the report of the previous week, when six were sunk. In the smaller category the losses are the same as those given in the report of the previous week—three—while there was a falling off by seven in the number of fishing vessels sunk.

FOREST FIRES AGAIN MENACE CORBIN TOWN

New Conflagration From South Rapidly Approaching Already Singed Town.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
PERNIE, B.C., July 25.—For a second time within forty eight hours the town of Corbin has been in danger of being obliterated by the forest fire raging in that vicinity. The latest relayed message received here this evening announced that the fire was sweeping down the valley at an alarming speed and that residents of the town were beginning to vacate.

Only on Monday the town narrowly escaped and it was only due to the work of the large body of men engaged that the fire was diverted when the flames were scorching buildings on the outskirts. The fire fighters battled persistently and yesterday the welcome news was received that a change in climatic conditions favored the fire.

The fire bearing down on Corbin tonight from the Flathead Valley is steadily increasing in volume, it is stated. It is estimated already to extend for two miles in length but its exact proportions are difficult to ascertain owing to it being impossible to approach the fire to investigate and because of the smoke making it impracticable to gauge it with reasonable accuracy.

It was therefore a shock that the startling news was received from McGillivray that a new fire from the south was bearing down upon the already singed town with amazing rapidity and that the women and children were again fleeing to more secure points.

MINERS DRIVEN TEMPORARILY INSANE BY TERRIBLE EXPLOSION IN CAPE BRETON COAL FIELDS

Sixty-Two Out of 270 At Work Dead—Greater Number Bodies Not Yet Recovered—Worst Disaster In History Of District—Crowds Of Weeping Women And Children Surround Pit Mouth—Explosion Believed To Be Caused By First Shot Fired.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
SYDNEY, N.S., July 25.—The worst explosion in the history of the Cape Breton coal fields occurred at 7:30 o'clock this morning in number 2 colliery of the New Waterford district. An official estimate received here places the number of dead at sixty-two, including thirty native miners, twenty-two Newfoundlanders and ten foreigners. About 270 men were in the mine when the explosion occurred. Colliery officials express surprise that the loss of life was no greater.

Few Bodies Recovered.
Up to a late hour this afternoon, when the last news reached here, only a small number of bodies had been taken up. The greater number will lie where they are till tomorrow. Great crowds of people, including weeping women and children, still surround the pit mouth. General Superintendent Tonge and a group of officials who were early on the spot went through the colliery this afternoon and report the workings and ventilations are in normal condition. There was no sign of fire. It is inferred from the report that damage to the pit is small. Work is expected to be resumed within a short time. Hiram Donkin, chief inspector of mines, is expected at the scene of the disaster shortly.

2,100 Feet Down.
The explosion occurred between Number 6 and 7 landings, about 2,100 feet down the shaft. As to how it happened officials are reticent or profess to be unable to say. Forty of fifty men were working at Number 6 landing when the explosion took place. Though there is fear that all will have been killed either by the explosion itself or deadly gas fumes, the rescue parties are making superhuman efforts to see if any can yet be saved.

A number of men working at Number 7 when the disaster occurred are among the badly injured, and some others are believed to be among the killed. Some of the men from this landing, however, are known to be among the saved but with those believed dead at Number 6 and those killed or suffocated in other parts of

Proposals Laid Before Commons by Sir Thos. White--Graduated Plan

Four Per Cent. On All Incomes Of Unmarried Men And Widowers Without Children, Exceeding $2,000, And Married Men On Incomes Exceeding $3,000—In Addition There Will Be A Supertax Ranging From 2 To 25 Per Cent., Beginning At $6,000—15 To 20 Millions Expected From Taxation.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
OTTAWA, July 25.—In the commons today an income tax upon private individuals, corporations and stock companies, was announced, and the resolution setting forth the proposals was adopted. Tomorrow the bill based upon the resolution will be introduced. Sir Thomas White, the minister of finance, quite frankly stated that in the past he had been averse to the imposition of direct taxation of this nature by the federal authorities. He realized, however, that there was a growing demand for it and that the time had arrived when it should be imposed. Incomes of unmarried persons and widowers with no children up to $2,000, and incomes of married persons up to $3,000 are exempted. Dividends from the government securities are also exempted. The tax upon private individuals is graduated. All incomes of unmarried men above $2,000 and married men above $3,000 are taxed four per cent on the income in excess of that amount. On incomes exceeding $6,000 there is a supertax commencing at two per cent on incomes from $6,000 to $10,000, and gradually increasing to 25 per cent on incomes exceeding $100,000.

Corporations' Tax.
The tax on corporations and joint stock companies is four per cent on incomes above $3,000. The tax will apply to incomes of the present calendar year, and everybody concerned will be expected to declare their income before February 28 next.

There was considerable discussion of the minister's proposals before the resolution was adopted. The principle of the new taxation being approved by A. K. MacLean, the chief opposition financial critic, and other opposition members. The majority of the liberals who spoke said this should have been imposed before while E. M. MacDonald said it was not stiff enough in the case of men of large incomes. They would still have plenty left, he said, to continue to live extravagantly.

Sir Thomas announced that when the present business tax expires the income tax will take its place. In the meantime the amount paid in business tax is deducted from the income tax of this year if the income tax is larger. He said he expected to derive a revenue of from 15 to 20 million from the new taxation.

Soldiers' Bill.
Third reading was given to the Soldiers' Settlement bill at the evening sitting of the house, after it had been reported from committee. An amendment was adopted providing that the privileges of the bill be extended to those with any of His Majesty's allies. During the preliminary George McCraney, of Saskatoon, read a telegram from the secretary of the Returned Soldiers' association of Saskatchewan stating that the settlement of returned soldiers on the land was being retarded by the delay in the issue of patents. He asked the minister of the interior to facilitate this matter.

Hon. Dr. Roche assured him he would do so. Hon. Frank Cochrane, minister of railways, replying to a question by Hon. Rodmond B. Sutherland, said that legislation respecting the Quebec and Saguenay Railway would be introduced this session.

Income and Spending.
Sir Thomas gave some figures relative to the income and the expenditures of the Dominion up to the present time. From April 1, the beginning of the fiscal year, up to July 20, the income from the Dominion was $137,000,000 and the expenditure $140,000,000, leaving approximately $3,000,000 to be applied to the war.

The total war expenditure of the Dominion of Canada up to July 20 has been $388,627,000, while the expenditure elsewhere has been $235,600,000, making a total expenditure of $624,227,000. The war expenditure in Canada between April and July 20 has been $39,702,000 or approximately the same as the surplus. No statistics are yet available as to the expenditure for the period elsewhere.

Borrowings.
Sir Thomas told the house that Canada has borrowed from Great Britain $317,000,000; from the United States $100,000,000; and from other sources $302,000,000. The amount is about equal, subject to the circumstances of the war, to the amount of $302,000,000 which are pledged in New York. This makes a balance due from Great Britain of $100,000,000.

E. M. MacDonald criticized the proposed taxation on the ground that it would not bring home to people with large incomes the stern necessities of the situation. Francis McCrear, of Sherbrooke, approved generally of the proposals, while Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux said that the situation required the minister of finance is one calling for stern economy on the part of the government. Ordinary expenditure should be reduced by fifty per cent.

The resolution was then carried and Sir Thomas stated that a bill based upon it would be introduced tomorrow.

Replies to Mr. Oliver.
When the house met today, Sir Robert Borden, replying to a question put by Mr. Oliver a few days ago, said that in connection with the enforcement of the Military Service Act, the same policy in regard to the recruiting of men of alien enemies would be followed as had been followed in connection with voluntary enlistment. Or, in other words, it would not be considered advisable to enlist for the overseas service men who would not be acceptable to the Imperial authorities.

PENSIONS QUITE INADEQUATE TO SUPPORT DEPENDENTS OF DEAD SOLDIERS OF CANADA

Committee Of Public Service League, Citizens And Patriotic Fund Adopt Recommendation Calling On Government To Make Investigation Before Passing Proposed Pension Legislation—Specific Cases Will Be Prepared And Submitted In Evidence.

Committee Of Public Service League, Citizens And Patriotic Fund Adopt Recommendation Calling On Government To Make Investigation Before Passing Proposed Pension Legislation—Specific Cases Will Be Prepared And Submitted In Evidence.

That the present scale of pensions for soldiers' dependents is quite inadequate in a number of important particulars, particularly in cases where dependents have been left with property on which there is an unpaid balance; in cases where the dependents have no other source of support except the pension, and in the case of orphans and widows. The report submitted to a committee of the National Service League, of citizens and of the officer of the Patriotic Fund, is being debated by the National Service League last night.

The members of the committee, after a discussion of the points brought forward in the preliminary report, adopted an unanimous vote to submit it to a meeting of the primary committee, including the service league, which will be held at the Grosvenor on Wednesday, August 1st, for action.

Specific Causes. In dealing with these specific causes, the speaker also noted that the officials of the Bureau had to prepare an abstract of at least two specific cases under each of the three categories. He also noted that the Bureau had to make a statement that the general meeting, if it adopts the report, will forward it at the same time to the Bureau for forwarding data for the consideration of parliament before the new pension legislation is passed.

The individual members of the sub-committee were in entire agreement that some representations of the kind should be made. John Blue, of the Department of National Defence, the question resolved itself into whether parliament would increase the pensions or reduce the cost of living.

John A. McDougall thought that the committee did not have enough definite information to be able to send to Ottawa, to deal finally with the matter. Mr. Blue believed the report as submitted should be sent direct to Ottawa, and that the government or dependent who has made the greatest sacrifice that any human being can make in giving up their loved ones, should be asked to live in a lessor state of bodily and mental comfort than the majority of the time their loved ones enlisted, able to enjoy.

This, I believe, a matter of sufficient importance to warrant a full, complete and immediate investigation on the part of the government, and I am glad to see that you have forwarded to Ottawa your request to that effect.

THIRDLY: We were asked to consider the need of some provision being made for the children of soldiers who have, by the loss of both father and

Mr. Dodman's report, which was prepared in response to a request made at the recent general meeting to consider the subject, was, in part, as follows:

Gentlemen—As requested I have carefully perused the cases, I have been submitted to me for this purpose and am of the opinion that the cases submitted show that without doubt there is need for a more thorough investigation into this matter than is possible for me, with the limited time at my disposal, to make.

Finally, I will deal with dependents who have been left with property on which there are unpaid balances on mortgages or other encumbrances. In every instance of cases of this class

The correspondence shows quite clearly that the pensions being received are entirely inadequate to enable these people so situated to live, and to take care of the payments that are now coming due on the mortgages.

Fourthly: Cases have been brought to our attention where Canadians have for some reason or other enlisted in the imperial army, while their dependents have been for some time did not do all that as in our power prior to the war, and are still residents of this country. The pensions received from the imperial government represent a mere pittance as compared to the cost of living in this country.

possess in these several properties. It would, therefore, appear only right and proper that our government should make some provision for such cases as these, and any other special case that might from time to time

The Daily Poem

THE LAD IN KHAKI.

There's many a lad in khaki,
There's many a lad today,
Who is thinking of home and mother,
And loved ones far away.
Who is thinking about his comrades
And wonders when you will come,
For after every battle they need new
Men for the gun.

There's many a lad in khaki,
There's many a lad today,
Who is doing his best for his country;
Oh, why will you stay away,
And leave your friend in khaki
To fight the battle alone.
When men are so badly needed,
Oh, how can you stay at home.

There's many a lad in khaki,
Brave boys who are far away,
Fighting for King and country,
And they call to their friends today:
"We stood side by side in the home-land,
When life was both happy and gay;
My sword was in a strange land
Or will you enlist and stay?"

Have courage, oh boys in khaki!
We are coming to help in the fray.
We'll stand side by side in the home-land,
And we're thinking of you today.

The many Ottawa friends of Lady Sybil Grey, daughter of Earl Grey, a former Governor General, will be greatly interested in reading a clever article from her pen which appears in the June number of the National Review, one of the leading English magazines. The article is entitled "Side Lights on the Russian Revolution" and in it the author gives a splendid and instructive account of the events of the first few days of the revolution.

Mrs. Barnard, who is the lieutenant-governor, signed the first economy pledge card at Victoria last week when five hundred women met under the auspices of the household economy club to make economy pledges to their empire and allies. We are asked to be unselfish on a large scale, and to think of our brothers and sisters who are in the ranks and in the front lines. Do not wait to see what your neighbor is doing. Judge for yourself what you should do and do it. Bishop Selkirk in an interesting address expressed the opinion that the success of the empire depended on the enrollment of the armies of the kitchen, and that the rank and file of people must settle down to serious things. Miss Juniper, the domestic science expert, suggested government regulation of food supplies to be honest and a provincial food adviser who would be able to give balanced rationing week by week during the year.

Mrs. Davenport urged an appeal for the manufacture of oleomargarine to take the place of butter.—Vancouver Daily Province.

Another successful and enjoyable entertainment under the auspices of the Returned Soldiers' Welfare league was given at the Convalescent Home last night by the young ladies of the First Presbyterian church, in charge of Miss Kate McCrimmon. In order to get the visitors and the soldiers acquainted, autographed cards were distributed and the holders hunted up the lady or gentleman whose name came to him in this manner. After that progressive games were played in groups on the lawn. When night fell the company repaired to the assembly hall, where musical contest started the merriment. The answers to the questions were suggested by strains from well known songs, which were sung by Miss Clara May Bell. There were so many successful answers that the question was settled by an eating contest. Crackers were the edible supplied, and Miss McCrimmon was the winner. Miss Roxana Phillips gave a vocal solo and Miss Ella Taylor a recitation. Both were enthusiastically encored. Refreshments were served by the ladies which were followed by dancing.

His many friends in Edmonton will be pleased to learn that E. Drury Allan, C.E., who left for overseas with the 49th Bn., has been promoted to commissioned rank on the field for gallantry in action, and is now in England qualifying.

Mr. Allan was formerly a member of the Transcontinental engineering staff at Winnipeg and later with the C.N.R. west of Edmonton. He enlisted here.

He was a sergeant in the machine-gun section of the battalion when the unit left here, and for two years has been active service with this famous unit. Mr. Allan's work has been consistently good and recently he was complimented by the O.C. the battalion and recommended for a commission. He was formerly with the Canadian forces. Enjoying Life at Y.W.C.A. Camp at Seba Beach

Edmonton has many holiday resorts within reasonable distance, but one of the most delightful of these is Seba Beach. It is sandy shore, lofty birches and the hospitality of the cottagers, make it an ideal spot for a pleasant holiday or a restful week-end. The beach is formerly known as "The Girls' Camp" is this year being used by the Y. W. C. A. under the management of the camp committee. This month Mrs. Dettwiler is acting as superintendent and gives every guest a very cordial welcome.

The camp is provided with airy sleeping porches, rest room and a large dining-room facing the lake front.

Rules and regulations in connection with the camp are few, however, the dining hall rings at 8 o'clock and breakfast is served at 8.30. After breakfast there are the beds to be made and the plans of the day to be decided upon. The guests are free to choose their pleasures; some prefer to go fishing, some going on a hike, others canoeing, swimming, reclining on the grass or knitting for the Red Cross.

Mrs. Ellen Smith, who has had much experience in cooking, serves delicious meals including home-made bread and strawberry short-cake and her fish suppers are much enjoyed by all.

A large tent which is adjacent to the camp provides accommodation for men and boys who wish to spend a week-end or longer at the beach. Many members of the Y. have availed themselves of the opportunity of visiting the camp, but any young man will be welcomed and younger children are admitted when accompanied by an adult. Among the guests for the past week were: Mr. and Mrs. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Griffiths, Mrs. Selwight and Dudley, Mrs. Ogden and Freddie, Mrs. Johnson and Isabel, the Rev. J. G. Macdonald, Mr. and Mrs. Balfour, Cashman and Mr. Cryderman.

Alkali in Shampoos Bad For Washing Hair

Don't use prepared shampoos or anything else that contains too much alkali, for this is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is just plain purified coconut oil for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and beats the most expensive soaps or anything else all to pieces. You can get it at any drug store.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful in all that is required. It makes and abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.

Hot Water in Hurry.

To the Editor of Woman's Page:

Dear Madam—How often in the course of these warm sultry days do I wish for warm or hot water yet hate to heat up the house with the fire that would be necessary to get desired results. Now, here is such a good way I learned of to get hot water in a hurry. Say your stove or range has the usual coil or water-front, from which a pipe leads to the boiler. If the man of the house is handy with tools he can do this himself; if not, call in a handy man or plumber and have him cut the pipe near the stove, through the newly cut ends, and put in a tee. Into this screw a faucet. Now you have only to turn this faucet to intercept the boiling water on its way to the heated coil in the boiler, and water tank, or boiler. The special advantage of such an arrangement is readily apparent and after once installed, you can repay you in giving you hot water almost as soon as the fire in stove is lighted.

Entertaining for Brides-to-Be

To the Editor of Woman's Page:

Dear Madam—I have a most interesting and useful article in the early fall. I should like to give what is called a "miscellaneous shower" before that time in her honor.

Now, in regard to sending the invitation to friends for the shower, kindly advise how they are written to indicate that it is a "miscellaneous shower," which means gifts for the bride-to-be. I mean, how can I put the affair to make it pleasing to her as well as to every one present? Of course, there are, I know, quite a number of ways in which to present gifts, but I should like to know if you could suggest something of the kind.

A little cold water should be poured on it immediately. This will harden the grease and prevent it from soaking into the wood.

What is the most convenient way to serve watermelon?

The most convenient way to serve watermelon is to cut from the rind in two or three inch cubes and serve it in a deep dish surrounded with crushed ice.

How can labels be applied to bottles so they will not soak off when the bottles are washed?

If labels are applied to bottles with a little white of egg they will not soak off when the bottles are immersed in warm water.

shower is given, each girl could give, in order, the utensils necessary for the preparation of a meal, with a continuous rhyme, beginning with the first girl's package and ending with the last. A bathroom shower is helpful to the bride. For this bath towels, guest towels, washcloths, soap receptacles, bath mats, mirrors, towel racks and other articles can be given.

In sending out the invitations simply write in the lower corner "Miscellaneous shower to meet Miss Helen Blank." On the invitation to the bride-to-be this can be omitted. Or better still, if you want to really surprise her, just ask her quite informally to spend the afternoon or evening with you. It is quite proper for her fiancé to call for her; in fact, if the affair is given in the evening, you could invite a number of men.

Should Man Remove Hat?

Dear Madam—Will you kindly tell me whether or not, in your opinion, it is necessary in order that one will not be considered impolite to remove one's hat when riding in public elevators and on entering general offices, etc., where ladies are present? I have observed that a great many men whom I know are well bred do not remove their hats when entering the above-mentioned places.

P. O. LIGHT.

Although it is not considered necessary for a man to remove his hat when he is in a public elevator, many men do so, and when there is any doubt of the proprieties it would seem better to err on the courteous side. With very few exceptions, men always remove their hats when entering an office.

Bridgroom's Shoes

To the Editor of Woman's Page:

Dear Madam—Would it be proper for a bridegroom who is to wear the regulation cutaway coat and waistcoat, striped trousers, grey cravat and gloves, to wear patent leather pumps? Must he wear pumps?

Pumps should only be worn with a dress suit or dinner coat and dress trousers. Black patent leather ties or high shoes are appropriate for afternoon clothes. It is not necessary to wear spats, but they greatly add to the appearance of the foot.

Gifts for Bridal Party

To the Editor of Woman's Page:

Dear Madam—Will you please tell me the proper time to present members of one's bridal party with gifts?

The bride usually gives her bridesmaids their presents the evening before the wedding at the rehearsal, or she may give them at a luncheon or some little affair before. The bride

Behind the Footlights

What the Advance Man Says

IN FILMS NOT PRODUCE PRESENT CONFLICT

Picture directors do not necessarily have to depend upon the present war for their inspiration to feed the public to the degree of surfeit with thrills as only booming cannon and bursting shells can provide, according to Miss Patricia Handworth, the former Pathe woman who is at the Pathe theatre in "Salvation Sue".

It was eight years ago if memory serves that I acted in my first war thrill—says Miss Handworth. "I sometimes wonder how an industry can make such strides as the film industry has in so short a time. There is no doubt that the war has been the greatest stimulus to the industry in the past few years. The difference between the old days and the new is almost laughable. The old days a film director would be the extent of 500 feet on a love scene and a director today would spend many thousands of dollars on a battle scene. A real battle scene costs $25,000 and that is not money. The press agents can't go too strong chronicling that fact."

But if the world of spectacular film is revolving rapidly the realm of comedy is not by any means falling still. Take Max Linder, the best known comedian of the Pathe years. Max gave the public a slapstick comedy of the roughest variety when he first appeared before the Pathe camera. Another comedian, the famous Italian comedian "Tosca", who destroyed thousands of dollars' worth of scenery in his rough-house act before the camera. A few months ago he was engaged by a new company and the screen result almost to the belief that the Tosedium of 1917 are entirely different persons. All of which inspires some hope of the curtain rising down forever on the comedy and comedy pictures.

Government Agent at Winnipeg Announces Reduction to $2.35

Winnipeg, July 25.—Holders of wheat received a little lift this morning, when it was announced that the government had reduced the price to 235 basis for No. 1 Northern. For some time the government has been taking the bulk of offerings at 240 basis, and other buyers had to pay the same. This week private bidders were not in evidence to the extent they were previously. The government, finding itself the chief buyer, apparently took advantage of the situation to reduce the price. The markets were lower all around for future delivery, largely on account of the rains in Western Canada and declining markets in the south. The demand for oats is being maintained. Prices in the trade were from 1/2c to 1c lower than yesterday. Flax opened lower on the July and October options, but October developed strength. There was little doing in October wheat.

Winnipeg cash wheat closed 6c under yesterday's close. October wheat closed 5/8c down. July oats closed 1/2c down. October 1/2c down; December 1/2c down. July flax closed 1/4c lower. October 2/3c higher and December unchanged. Barley closed 1/2c lower.

Trading in the pit was slow during the first half-hour of the session and the market was easier and lower. There was no trading in October wheat during the first hour. July oats opened 1/2c lower at 70; October opened 1/2c lower at 65 1/2 and December 1/2c lower at 62 1/2.

July flax opened 1/2c lower at 235 and October 1/2c lower at 234 1/2. Better weather conditions had a bearing on the market. The weather bulletin reports today showed the rains to be general in all parts of the three provinces.
